BOARD REPORTS

Secretary/Michelle:

April minutes reviewed.
Anne Barton motions to approve minutes with corrections, and Margaret Orslene seconds.

Communications/Laura:

Nothing new to report.

Treasury/Patti: see complete treasurer's report online

Initially Andy went over the report via the overview until Patti returned from concert
Patti reported Boosters as an organization is doing well.
New budget still needs addressed and tweaked by the Directors to be finalized next month $1500 that was designated for concession equipment remains unused.
Paver program received $1000 more than goal set, but not yet reflected in reports.
Margaret Orslene motions to approve the report, and Angie Hurd seconds.

Concessions/Nancy and Sue:

For next season, Andy opened discussion of importance in creating a Concession Committee. The committee would convene to brainstorm ways to encourage parents from all three areas of interest (choir, strings, band). A sign-up sheet was passed around. Members include but not limited to: Barb Walters, Alane Dempsey, Sue Bastaja, Kristen Atha, Angie Hurd, Margaret Orslene, Kim Sullivan, and Dan Zetler.

Old Business

Nominations for open board positions. Anne Barton will be Communications Trustee. Julie Jonassen and Margaret Orslene will split duties for Treasurer. Kim Sullivan will be Vice President. Nancy Perry will remain as Concession Chair. Andy Piper will remain as President. Michelle Fought will remain as Secretary.

Scholarship winners Molly McPherron and Kristina Zhang

Turf: Andy updated the members as to the current standing of the Turf project, and the Boosters' monetary commitment to support the project. There was substantial discussion regarding the provisions being made to ensure Boosters' current concessions interest as well the potential for new money-generating events.

The school board meets on Thursday, May 23 and the turf will be voted for/against. If passed, installation is scheduled to begin as soon as possible, and completed for use in the Fall.

Anne Barton made a motion that the Music Boosters agree to the negotiated financial support of the Turf endeavor, and Margaret Orslene seconded. The motion was passed.
